NARRATIVE

On 5/13/19 Officer B. Michaud #1940 and I responded to [REDACTED] Floor, a company named (V1) [REDACTED] regarding a threats call. Upon our arrival, we met with (RW1) [REDACTED], the head of Human Resources, who told us what happened. Officer B. Michaud and I also activated our Body Worn Cameras as we spoke to her.

[REDACTED] stated that the company was an online publishing platform for people to publish and share their stories. She stated that the company had very strict rules about not publishing items that were offensive, threatening, or inappropriate. The account users of articles that violated those rules were not published and banned. [REDACTED] stated that she was notified that at approximately 0600hrs, the company had received two threatening voicemail messages from (S1) an unknown male with a British accent.

[REDACTED] told me that she had the two voicemails and played them for us. (S1) was cursing, using racist slurs, and calling the company racist. He was upset that the company was not responding to his emails and believed that they were violating his First Amendment rights. (S1) also stated "I hope you die". He later said that he was going to their building in the next 24 hours and leave a suitcase out front.

In addition, [REDACTED] stated that the only information she had for (S1) was the phone number that was listed on the caller id. She also stated the company had a list of accounts who had violated their publishing policy but they currently could not pinpoint who had called. [REDACTED] told me (W1) Gueldner, the leader for the company's Trust and Safety Team, would have more information regarding potential suspects and would keep a copy of the voicemails. She also told me that building security had been notified and would call police if they noticed anything suspicious.

After speaking to [REDACTED], I gave her a follow up form with case number (SFPD 105).

(BWC1) The Body Worn Camera video footage from Officer B. Michaud and myself was later uploaded onto evidence.com
